

Maple Syrup

A Taste of Nature

Name: _____

Directions: Fill in the blanks with the correct word.

1. Sugar maple trees grow naturally in the _____ region of the United States.
2. During the process of making pure maple syrup the sap is placed into an _____ to boil out the excess water.
3. Pure maple syrup contains a higher percent of _____ than water.
4. Approximately forty gallons of tree sap can make _____ of pure maple syrup.

Directions: Tree sap goes through a process to create maple syrup. Place the following steps in order.

- _____ Sap becomes thick and sweeter
- _____ Placed in a container for sale
- _____ Tree is tapped
- _____ Sap boiled to evaporate water
- _____ Sap collected in a bucket or drained through a pipe to a holding tank
- _____ Sap is placed into an evaporator

Directions: Answer the following statement to the best of your ability.

1. Name 2 products, other than maple syrup, made from maple sugar.