

Ten Important Hardwoods

Name: _____

Directions: Read through the following statements and circle the most appropriate answer.

1. Hardwood trees lose their _____ during the autumn.
a. bark
b. leaves
c. buds
d. roots
2. Simple leaves have two main parts: the _____ and _____.
a. flower and petal
b. leaflet and flower
c. blade and stalk
d. bud and bark
3. A compound leaf has: _____.
a. groups
b. leaflets
c. clusters
d. pounds
4. The leaf is connected to the tree branch by the _____.
a. stalk
b. blade
c. flower
d. trunk
5. The easiest way to identify trees is by examining their _____.
a. flowers
b. bark
c. buds
d. leaves
6. Most leaves join to the branch of a tree in one of two of the following arrangements:
a. alternate or opposite
b. together or separate
c. single or pairs
d. left or right
7. The _____ is the broad, flat and green tissue that is often called the "leaf".
a. wrapper
b. plate
c. blade
d. chlorophyll

Directions: Answer the following questions to the best of your ability.

1. If you were trying to identify a tree species, what characteristics do you think you would examine? Try to name at least three.

2. What products do people make out of Hardwood trees?