

Attachment 3: Definition Worksheet

Name: _____

Directions: Match the word in the left column to the correct definition in the right column.

Clear Cut	Controlling the structure growth, regeneration, and composition of the forest
Thinning	Type of Forest Management where you cut individual trees from a stand
Shelterwood	Type of Forest Management where you cut a small cluster of trees from a stand
Single tree selection	Group of trees that have not fully developed
Group selection	Removing trees so that others can grow
Competition	A section of the forest that is very similar
Forest diversity	Removal of all trees in a specific area
Silviculture	Multiple step way of cutting trees that creates an even-aged forest
Young forest	Group of more developed trees
Older forest	Lots of different types of trees of different ages existing in the same stand
Stand	The health of one tree is being hindered by another tree