non-renewable resource- resources that can not be replaced such as oil and ore deposits

renewable resource-resources that can be replaced such as trees stewardship-the wise management and use of forest resources to ensure their health and productivity for the future with regard for generations to come